-PUBLICATION NOTICE-

Some of the work we will be undertaking this year will be used for a school-based visual arts website, art educational research articles, or departmental promotion and articulation with other schools. For this purpose, I, the teacher will photograph some of your child's artwork, general students working in class, and record select quotes from reflective statements. Signing below only gives permission for the documentation of classroom experiences to be used/reproduced in the school based websites and art education publications/journals. (Please note I can only publish and post student work for which parental permission has been granted.) Permission is not required, and this website and research project will in no way affect the assessment and grading of student work throughout the year.

I grant permission for the River Hill Visual Arts Department Faculty (Jacob Cecil, Jennifer Smith, Caro Appel) to document my child, their artwork, and reflective statements for publication in school-based websites and professional art education documents and journals.
